ACCOUNTABILITY'S AA1000 ONLINE TRAINING LICENSE OVERVIEW

AccountAbility invites high-quality training organisations globally to apply for a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to offer AA1000 online training (see “Modules A, B, and C” below). The licensee training organisation will be expected to develop, create, and offer course content to participants, as per the training License Agreement available on the “AA1000 Training” webpage at www.accountability.org. Related fees are included in the license agreement.

Contact the AccountAbility Standards Team at standards@accountability.org for more information regarding how to apply, as well as any questions or feedback.

AA1000 Online Course Details

AA1000 online training is offered through AccountAbility-licensed training providers as an accessible, on-demand, and cost-effective offering for sustainability professionals worldwide.

This market-leading online training license will help to address the global demand for qualified sustainability practitioners by allowing trainers to teach the concepts of the AA1000 Series of Standards, so participants may improve and advance in their ability to apply the AA1000 in practical settings.

Licensed training providers will develop and deliver competency-based online modules teaching the concepts of the AA1000 Series of Standards and its associated documents.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this training, corresponding to each Module, participants will be able to:

- Understand the related AA1000 concepts, terminology, and expectations
- Understand the purpose and requirements of the AA1000 Series of Standards
- Understand the roles and responsibilities of a practitioner
- Identify appropriate use and apply AA1000 concepts, requirements, and associated methodologies
- Conduct appropriate activities to achieve the defined objectives
- Prepare and present effective reports
